Dani Kolb elected as board member of SEAP

Brussels, Belgium (May 13th) — Dani Kolb, Senior Consultant at Kellen Europe, has been elected member of the Board of Directors of The Society of European Affairs Professionals (SEAP). In this role, she will actively contribute to the development of professional standards and ethics in EU public affairs.

"We are proud for the dedicated role Dani will play in SEAP in the coming term. It is important to show commitment and to be part of the non-for profit organization representing European Affairs Professionals in Brussels," said Maria Teresa Scardigli, Vice President at Kellen Europe. "This illustrates the company's commitment to support self-regulation and constructive dialogue with all parties involved."

Ms. Kolb has been working at Kellen Europe, the Brussels-based office of Kellen Company, since May 2005. She is specialized in EU affairs, marketing and communication and representation towards third parties as well as overall association management.
