

Top Stories

Kellen starts new European AMC

Kellen Company, an Atlanta-based AMC, officially launched Kellen Europe in Brussels Belgium last week.

Kellen Europe was formerly Ernst & Young Assn Management, which was acquired by the Kellen Company in June.

Rosemary Gallant, acting senior commercial officer of US Mission to the EU, attended the opening and expressed the importance of assns in issues of global business and trade.

Former E&YAM partner and new Kellen Europe managing partner Alfons Westgeest (above) also spoke during the launch. "Being a part of the Kellen Company provides us with the opportunity for continued growth in Europe and the world and gives our clients an opportunity to tap the expertise in all 5 Kellen Company offices," Westgeest said.

The AMC also has offices in New York, Washington, and Tucson AZ.

Association Trends November 2004